IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF JEFFERSON COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA

PNGI CHARLES TOWN GAMING, LLC,

Plaintiff,

v.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 16-C 257

YORK BUILDING PRODUCTS CO., INC. and YORK BUILDING AGGREGATES, LLC,

Defendants.

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff PNGI CHARLES TOWN GAMING, LLC (the "Plaintiff" or "PNGI"), by its counsel, states the following Complaint against Defendants YORK BUILDING PRODUCTS CO., INC. and YORK BUILDING AGGREGATES, LLC (collectively, the "Defendants" or "York"):

PARTIES, JURISDICTION, AND VENUE

1. Plaintiff PNGI CHARLES TOWN GAMING, LLC (the "Plaintiff" or "PNGI") is a West Virginia limited liability company with its principal place of business in Jefferson County, West Virginia.

2. Defendant YORK BUILDING PRODUCTS CO., INC. is a Pennsylvania corporation that is not authorized to do business in West Virginia, and whose address is 950 Smile Way, York, Pennsylvania 17404.

3. Defendant YORK BUILDING AGGREGATES, LLC is a Pennsylvania limited liability company that is not authorized to do business in West Virginia, and whose address is 950 Smile Way, York, Pennsylvania 17404.

4. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this matter because it is a civil action for breach of contract against Defendants doing business in Jefferson County, West Virginia, and the amount in controversy exceeds the jurisdictional limit for Magistrate Court.

5. This Court is a proper venue for this matter because the Defendants do business in Jefferson County, West Virginia; the parties' dispute arises out of a contract breached in Jefferson County, West Virginia; and the damages suffered by the Plaintiff as a result of the Defendants' breach occurred in Jefferson County, West Virginia.

FACTS

6. PNGI is the owner and operator of Hollywood Casino at Charles Town Races, a thoroughbred horse racing facility, casino, entertainment and events center, and fine dining destination located in Charles Town, West Virginia.

7. Hollywood Casino at Charles Town Races is one of the busiest thoroughbred horse racing facilities in the country, with 182 live racing days held virtually year round for the year 2016. Live thoroughbred horse racing at Hollywood Casino at Charles Town Races occurs on a race track surfaced with a mixture of dirt, fine sand, and clay, which is periodically resurfaced due to the wear on the surface created by horse traffic and the need to alter the composition of the track to accommodate seasonal weather changes.

8. York Building Products, Co., Inc. sells masonry products, hardscape products, cement products, construction supplies, and aggregates such as stone, sand, and gravel. See <http://www.yorkbuilding.com/> Upon information and belief, York Building Aggregates, LLC (collectively with York Building Products Co., Inc., the "Defendants" or "York") directly supports the production and sale of aggregates products that are advertised and sold under the York Building Products, Co., Inc. brand name.

9. York's website states that "because we are vertically integrated, we control our product quality from the raw material stage through the entire manufacturing process -- your assurance of a product line built on a foundation of excellence."
<http://www.yorkbuilding.com/about/>

10. York's website states that: "With several sand and gravel production facilities located throughout central Maryland, we supply the needs of contractors throughout Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia. Our state-of-the-art facilities produce consistent quality product for the most exacting specifications."
<http://www.yorkbuilding.com/york-building-products/sand-gravel/>

11. York's website states that: "Our sand & gravel plants produce a wide range of products from rice gravel to landscape gravel. We also produce a variety of sands used in construction and manufacturing throughout the Mid-Atlantic. As with all of our aggregate products, we test regularly to ensure our products meet AASHTO and ASTM specifications, so you can be assured our products will meet your project's strictest requirements."
<http://www.yorkbuilding.com/aggregate-products/>

12. York's website specifically advertises aggregates products for use in the equestrian sports industry. See <http://www.yorkbuilding.com/aggregate-products/364-2/>

13. York's website provides downloadable tech data sheets for the aggregates products that it sells. See <http://www.yorkbuilding.com/aggregate-products/stone/>

14. On March 25, 2016, PNGI purchased the following aggregates products from York: (1) 400 tons of MS2 Mason Sand; (2) 300 tons of C-144 Mason Sand; and (3) 600 tons of White Fine Sand. A true and correct copy of the Standard Purchase Order from PNGI Charles Town Gaming, LLC to York Building Products, Inc. dated March 25, 2016 is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

15. ASTM E11 is the Standard Specification for Woven Wire Test Sieve Cloth and Test Sieves, a standardized mesh series for determining the particle-size distribution of granular materials. ASTM E11 provides, among others, the following mesh sieve size specifications: a #4 sieve has a maximum individual sieve opening of 5.14 mm; a #8 sieve has a maximum individual sieve opening of 2.6 mm; a #10 sieve has a maximum individual sieve opening of 2.215 mm; a #16 sieve has a maximum individual sieve opening of 1.33 mm; a #18 sieve has a maximum individual sieve opening of 1.135 mm; a #30 sieve has a maximum individual sieve opening of 695 μ m; a #35 sieve has a maximum individual sieve opening of 585 μ m; a #60 sieve has a maximum individual sieve opening of 306 μ m; and a #100 sieve has a maximum individual sieve opening of 192 μ m.

16. The Technical Data Sheet for York's MS2 Mason Sand, available as a download from York's website, states in part that 100% of York's MS2 Mason Sand will pass through a 3/8" sieve, 99.9% will pass through a #4 sieve, 99.6% will pass through a #8 sieve, 98.9% will pass through a #16 sieve, and 91.9% will pass through a #30 sieve. See <http://www.yorkbuilding.com/wp-content/uploads/Mason-Sand-MS2-TDS.pdf> A true and correct copy of York's Technical Data Sheet for MS2 Mason Sand, downloadable from York's website, is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

17. The Technical Data Sheet for York's C-144 Mason Sand, available as a download from York's website, states in part that 100% of York's C-144 Mason Sand will pass through a #4 sieve, 98.9% will pass through a #8 sieve, and 90.7% will pass through a #16 sieve. See <http://www.yorkbuilding.com/wp-content/uploads/C-144-mason-Sand-TDS.pdf> A true and correct copy of York's Technical Data Sheet for C-144 Mason Sand, downloadable from York's website, is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

18. The Technical Data Sheet for York's White Fine Sand, available as a download from York's website, states in part that 100% of York's White Fine Sand will pass through a #4 sieve, 99.6% will pass through a #10 sieve, 98.9% will pass through a #18 sieve, 98.5% will pass through a #35 sieve, 98.3% will pass through a #60 sieve, and 94.5% will pass through a #100 sieve. See <http://www.yorkbuilding.com/wp-content/uploads/White-Fine-Sand-TDS.pdf> A true and correct copy of York's Technical Data Sheet for White Fine Sand, downloadable from York's website, is attached hereto as Exhibit D.

19. PNGI has purchased the same, or similar, aggregates products from York on multiple occasions prior to March 25, 2016, and has communicated to York that PNGI purchases aggregates products for the specific purpose of resurfacing the thoroughbred horse racing track at Hollywood Casino at Charles Town Races. PNGI typically resurfaces the track in the spring, in advance of live racing events held at Hollywood Casino at Charles Town Races during the week of the Kentucky Derby.

20. The Kentucky Derby is the most well-known live thoroughbred horse racing event held in the United States, and is known among other monikers as "The Most Exciting Two Minutes In Sports.” The Kentucky Derby is held annually on the first Saturday in May, and generates considerable public interest in live thoroughbred horse racing every year.

21. PNGI consistently experiences increased visitor interest in the racing, gambling, entertainment, and dining offerings at Hollywood Casino at Charles Town Races during the week of the Kentucky Derby.

22. PNGI has generated year-over-year increases in its revenue and profits at Hollywood Casino at Charles Town Races during the week of the Kentucky Derby.

23. York actually knew, or should have known from prior communications and its course of dealing with PNGI, that PNGI purchased aggregates products from York on March 25, 2016, for the specific purpose of resurfacing its thoroughbred horse racing track at Hollywood Casino at Charles Town Races in advance of live thoroughbred racing events to be held the week or weeks prior to the running of the 2016 Kentucky Derby, which, in 2016, occurred on May 7.

24. Between April 11 and April 14, 2016, the MS2 Mason Sand, C-144 Mason Sand, and White Fine Sand purchased by PNGI from York on March 25, 2016, were delivered by York to Hollywood Casino at Charles Town Races for PNGI’s track resurfacing. The sand was delivered by York in loads transported by multiple dump trucks, and dumped at a clean staging area on the grounds of Hollywood Casino at Charles Town Races for spreading on the track surface.

25. Unbeknownst to PNGI, one or more loads of sand delivered by York were contaminated with rocks that did not conform to the specifications advertised by York for the products purchased by PNGI. The rocks ranged in size from pea-sized up to fist-sized, and would not have passed through a 3/8" sieve or smaller sieve opening if properly screened by York. Due to the volume of sand purchased by PNGI and the manner in which it was delivered by York, the rock contamination was not apparent from a reasonable inspection of the material by PNGI's employees upon delivery by York, and was not actually discovered by PNGI's employees until the contaminated sand and rocks had been spread on the track surface.

26. The rock contamination presented a serious safety hazard to horses and jockeys participating in live thoroughbred horse racing events at Hollywood Casino at Charles Town Races. PNGI was forced to cancel its live horse racing events until the contaminated sand and rocks were removed and the track appropriately resurfaced, resulting in the cancellation of live horse racing at Hollywood Casino at Charles Town Races for the 2016 Kentucky Derby week as well as the following week.

27. As a result of the cancellation of live horse racing events, PNGI suffered a significant downturn in visitor attendance, and a corresponding loss of revenue and profits, in all of PNGI's business sectors (e.g., racing, gambling, entertainment, and dining) at Hollywood Casino at Charles Town Races for the 2016 Kentucky Derby week, and for weeks thereafter.

28. York employees admitted to PNGI that York was responsible for the rock contamination in the sand delivered to PNGI. Nonetheless, York has refused to honor its express and implied warranties for the sand purchased by PNGI, has refused to provide any monetary compensation to PNGI for any of its losses incurred as a result of the contaminated sand sold by York, and has in fact demanded full payment from PNGI despite admitting that the sand was contaminated and neither merchantable nor fit for PNGI's intended purposes.

COUNT ONE: BREACH OF CONTRACT

29. The Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all previous paragraphs contained in this Complaint as if the same were set forth in this paragraph of the Complaint verbatim.

30. The Defendants' conduct constitutes breach of contract.

31. As a result of the Defendants' breach of contract, the Plaintiff has suffered damages, including consequential damages and lost profits, in an amount to be determined at trial.

32. All conditions precedent to the relief demanded herein have occurred or have been performed.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honorable Court grant them judgment against the Defendants in an amount to be determined at trial; plus all attorney fees and costs of litigation, pre-judgment interest, and post-judgment interest as allowed by law. The Plaintiff further requests that this Honorable Court grant them such other legal or equitable relief as it shall deem just and proper.

THE PLAINTIFF DEMANDS A TRIAL BY JURY.

I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and 3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and 4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.
Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/irs.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued).
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States:

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Publication 516, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if he or she stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code on page 3 and the separate instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships above.

What is FATCA reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code on page 3 and the instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

You must enter one of the following on this line; do not leave this line blank. The name should match the name on your tax return.

If this Form W-9 is for a joint account, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of Form W-9.

a. Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note. ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040/1040A/1040EZ you filed with your application.

b. Sole proprietor or single-member LLC. Enter your individual name as shown on your 1040/1040A/1040EZ on line 1. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as" (DBA) name on line 2.

c. Partnership, LLC that is not a single-member LLC, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name as shown on the entity's tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

d. Other entities. Enter your name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on line 1. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

e. Disregarded entity. For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a "disregarded entity." See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(ii). Enter the owner's name on line 1. The name of the entity entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner's name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on line 2, "Business name/disregarded entity name." If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, you may enter it on line 2.

Line 3

Check the appropriate box in line 3 for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box in line 3.

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the name on line 1 is an LLC treated as a partnership for U.S. federal tax purposes, check the "Limited Liability Company" box and enter "P" in the space provided. If the LLC has filed Form 8832 or 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, check the "Limited Liability Company" box and in the space provided enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation. If it is a single-member LLC that is a disregarded entity, do not check the "Limited Liability Company" box; instead check the first box in line 3 "Individual/sole proprietor or single-member LLC."

Line 4, Exemptions

If you are exempt from backup withholding and/or FATCA reporting, enter in the appropriate space in line 4 any code(s) that may apply to you.

Exemption from FATCA reporting code. The following codes identify payees that are exempt from reporting under FATCA. These codes apply to persons submitting this form for accounts maintained outside of the United States by certain foreign financial institutions. Therefore, if you are only submitting this form for an account you hold in the United States, you may leave this field blank. Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements. A requester may indicate that a code is not required by providing you with a Form W-9 with "Not Applicable" (or any similar indication) written or printed on the line for a FATCA exemption code.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on this page), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-828-3876).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if items 1, 4, or 5 below indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

- 1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.
- 2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.
- 3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.
- 4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).
- 5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN.
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-828-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contact with taxpayers via email. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit irs.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.
